ADDITIONAL TERMS FOR CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $861,000.00. The restitution is due immediately. Interest on the restitution is waived. Restitution payments shall be made payable to the Clerk, United States District Court, for proportionate distribution to the following victims:

New Media Technology Charter School

$522,000.00

8040 Thouron Avenue

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19150; and,

Wilmington Savings Fund Society

$339,000.00

500 Delaware Avenue

Wilmington, Delaware 19801.

The restitution obligation is joint and several with co-defendant, Hugh C. Clark.

The Court recommends that, while in custody, defendant pay her restitution pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons Inmate Financial Responsibility Program provided, however, that defendant shall pay the restitution in quarterly installments of not less than $25.00 out of her prison earnings, unless her prison earnings after payment of her special assessment are less than $25.00 a quarter, in which event, the quarterly installment shall be the amount of her prison earnings. Beginning thirty (30) days after defendant is released from custody, defendant shall pay the balance due on her restitution obligation in monthly installments of not less than $100.00 while she is employed.

The Court finds that defendant has sufficient assets, income, and income earning potential to warrant imposition of the restitution order and payment schedule, taking into account her expenditures for food, clothing, shelter and other necessities for herself and her family.

The Court finds that defendant does not have sufficient assets, income or income earning potential to warrant imposition of a fine in addition to restitution. Accordingly, a fine is waived in this case.

Defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $2,800.00, which shall be due immediately and paid on or before July 20, 2012.
